b) Workers Cooperative - the bond of membership shall only be residential and/or occupational.

Section 6. Distinction and Authorized Activities

a) Labor Service Cooperative – the cooperative is engaged exclusively in job contracting and sub-contracting services to third party.

b) Workers Cooperative - this principally consists of providing employment and business opportunities to its members and manages it in accordance with the cooperative principles. It cannot engage in contracting or sub-contracting activity.

Section 7. Prohibited Activities. It shall be prohibited for labor service and workers cooperatives to engage in the following activities:

A. Labor-only contracting. For this purpose, labor only contracting shall refer to an arrangement where:

i. The cooperative does not have substantial capital or investments in the form of tools, equipment, machineries, work premises, among others, and the employee recruited and placed are performing activities which are usually necessary or desirable to the operation of the company, or directly related to the main business of the principal within a definite or predetermined period, regardless of whether such job, work or service is to be performed or completed within or outside the premises of the principal; or

ii. The cooperative does not exercise the right to control over the performance of the work of the employee.
B. Other Prohibitions. Notwithstanding Section 7.1 of these Circular, the following activities are hereby declared prohibited, for being contrary to law or public policy:

1. Contracting out of jobs, work or services when not done in good faith and not justified by the exigencies of the business such as the following:

   i. Contracting out of jobs, works or services when the same results in the termination or reduction of regular employees and reduction of work hours or reduction or splitting of the bargaining unit.

   ii. Contracting out of work with a “Cabo”.

   iii. Taking undue advantage of the economic situation or lack of bargaining strength of the contractor’s employees, or undermining their security of tenure or basic rights, or circumventing the provisions of regular employment, in any of the following instances:

      a) Requiring them to perform functions which are currently being performed by the regular employees of the principal; and

      b) Requiring them to sign, as a precondition to employment or continued employment, an antedated resignation letter; a blank payroll; a waiver of labor standards including minimum wages and social or welfare benefits; or a quitclaim releasing the principal, contractor or from any liability as to payment of future claims.

   iv. Contracting out of a job, work or service through an in-house agency.

   v. Contracting out of a job, work or service that is necessary or desirable or directly related to the business or operation of the principal by reason of a strike or lockout whether actual or imminent.

   vi. Contracting out of a job, work or service being performed by union members when such will interfere with restrain or coerce employees in the exercise of their rights to self-organization as provide in Art. 248 (c) of the Labor Code, as amended.

   vii. Repeated hiring of employees under an employment contract of short duration or under a Service Agreement of short duration with the same or different contractors, which circumvents the Labor Code provisions on Security of Tenure.
viii. Requiring employees under a subcontracting arrangement to sign a contract fixing the period of employment to a term shorter than the term of the Service Agreement, unless the contract is divisible into phases for which substantially different skills are required and this is made known to the employee at time of engagement.

ix. Refusal to provide a copy of the Service Agreement and the employment contract between the contractor and employees deployed to work in the bargaining unit of the principal’s certified bargaining agent to the sole and exclusive bargaining agent (SEBA).

Section 8. Jurisdiction – In accordance with Section 6 of MC No. 2012-08, all applications for registration under these Guidelines shall be directly filed with the Central Office (CO). However, this shall not in any way prejudice the future delegation of the registration of this type of cooperative to the Extension/Regional offices of the Authority.
