COOPERATIVISM: IN THE LIGHT OF HOPE AND COMPASSION DURING COVID 19 CRISIS

After two (2) months of ECQ due to the CoViD-19 pandemic, people are still fearful and continue to pray for deliverance from danger and harm.

While we are hopeful that one day, we will go through life living without the pandemic, cooperatives in the area continued to look after their members. The Iligan City Government Employees Multipurpose Cooperative continued to support its members by giving out rice and grocery items. The coop spent Php100,000.00.

Same thing for the Napocor Elementary School Teachers Multipurpose Cooperative that gave 5 kilos of rice and grocery items to their members, security guards, janitor of the school, and to the frontliners in Brgy. Ma. Cristina, Iligan City.

The Iligan City Cooperative Development Council (ICCDC) also gave relief packs to 32 families of Barangay Rogongon, Iligan City on May 13, 2020. In Misamis Occidental, the Tudela Public School Teachers Multi-Purpose Cooperative gave their members dressed chickens.

Meanwhile, in the neighboring city of Cagayan de Oro, the Northern Mindanao Medical Center Multi-Purpose Cooperative has donated to the Northern Mindanao Medical Center (NMMC) Php 100,000.00 for their fight against COVID-19. They also distributed grocery items not only to their members but also to the hospital's canteen employees, security guards, and janitors. Also in Cagayan de Oro, the Integrated Livestock & Poultry Raisers Multipurpose Cooperative (ILIPCO) has provided daily meals & snacks to its employees for 44 days, distributed goods & commodities to their members and surrounding communities.

Finally, in the Province of Bukidnon, the Mediatrix Multi-Purpose Cooperative has extended assistance to the Local Government Unit of Don Carlos, Bukidnon by donating washable face masks for their frontliners.

As we face the new normal of life, let us continue to have a nurturing attitude to allow the cooperative spirit live on.
