RCDC XI distributes Davao coops' donations

On June 26, 2020, the Region XI Cooperative Development Council (RCDC XI) distributed its donation of sets of PPE suits and sacks of bihon from the gathered cash and in-kind donations given by the different cooperatives in Davao region to assist the frontliners in its fight against COVID19. Several coops responded to the call of the Council's fund drive to assist frontliners in the region. RCDC XI Chairperson Felix L. Tabasa led the turnover to Southern Philippines Medical Center (SPMC) together with other officers, Cooperative Development Authority-Davao Extension Office (CDA-DEO) Regional Director Elma R. Oguis and Davao City Cooperative Development Office (CCDO) OIC Luzminda C. Eblamo. The donations were gratefully received by SPMC's Administrator, Atty. Oscar Mata and Chief Dietician Ms. Guilly Apigo.

The donations were distributed as well to health facilities in Davao del Sur and Davao del Norte. Gov. Edwin Jubahib received the donation as handed by its Provincial Cooperative Development Officer (PCDO) Humber D. Cabunoc. Engr. Felix Tabasa as City Cooperative Development Officer of Digos City turned over the Council's donation to the city government through the City Health Office of Digos represented by Dr. Ronald Jumilla and Ms. Russel Anne C. Almazan.
