AN OPEN LETTER TO AGRICULTURE COOPERATIVES AND COOPERATIVES ENGAGED IN AGRICULTURE

Our Compatriots:

The threat of food security appears to become alarming not only locally but globally should COVID-19 remained contagious to all humans in the next couple of weeks and/or months. Our anticipation of food shortage might be misinterpreted as Paranoiac, but we would just like to contribute to the Filipino people the assurances of food availability in the market.

The proposition of making our agricultural products available online at affordable and reasonable prices for domestic consumption is hereby suggested to provide appeasements of mind that will help counter the fear of millions of Filipinos.

Hoping for your favorable response and equally receptive concern and ideas.

Thank you and may the Good Lord bless us all.
