www.cda.gov.ph

The Cooperative Development Authority (CDA) is a government agency created by virtue of Republic Act. No. 6939 in compliance with the provisions of Section 15, Article XII of the Philippine Constitution of 1987 which mandates Congress to create an agency to promote the viability and growth of cooperatives as instruments for equity, social justice and economic development. RA. 6939 was signed into law on March 10, 1990.

The CDA is governed by the Board of Administrators consisting of a Chairman and six (6) members appointed by the President and are chosen from among the nominees of the cooperative sector with two (2) representatives each from Luzon, Visayas, and Mindanao. They serve for a term of six (6) years without reappointment.

MANDATE :

The CDA is mandated by law to promote the viability and growth of cooperatives as instruments of equity, social justice and sustainable economic development.

VISION :

An effective and efficient regulatory agency working towards the development of viable, sustainable, socially responsive and globally competitive cooperatives.

CORE VALUES :

Excellence, Commitment, Integrity and Teamwork (ExCITe).

MISSION :

To ensure the safe and sound operation of cooperatives

LEGAL BASIS :

In fulfillment of the provisions of Section 15, Article XII of the Philippine Constitution "to have an agency that would promote the viability and growth of cooperatives as instrument of equity, social justice and sustainable economic development, defining its powers, functions and responsibilities, rationalizing government policies and agencies with cooperative functions, supporting cooperative development, transferring the registration and regulation functions of existing government agencies on cooperatives as such and consolidating the same with the Authority, appropriating funds therefore, and for other purposes", Republic Act 6939 was enacted to create the Cooperative Development Authority.

POWERS, FUNCTIONS & RESPONSIBILITIES :

R.A. 6939 has granted the CDA the following main powers, functions and responsibilities:

1. Formulate, adopt and implement integrated and comprehensive plans and programs on cooperative development consistent with the national policy on cooperatives and the overall socio-economic development plans of the government;
2. Develop and conduct management training programs upon request of cooperatives that will provide members of cooperatives with the entrepreneurial capabilities, managerial expertise, and technical skills required for the efficient operation of their cooperatives and inculcate in them the true spirit of cooperativism and provide, when necessary, technical and professional assistance to ensure the viability and growth of cooperatives with special concern for agrarian reform, fishery and economically depressed sector;
