

Setting the direction of the Inclusive Financial Cluster

by Orlando R. Ravanera
Chairman
Cooperative Development Authority

Finance Cluster Summit
Tagaytay International Convention Center
April 17, 2015

Key Result Areas

- Rapid inclusive and sustainable economic growth;
- Empowerment of the poor and vulnerable for poverty alleviation;
- Just and lasting peace and the rule of law;
- Anti-corruption/ transparent, accountable and participatory governance.
- Climate change and concern for the environment and sustainable development
-

Three Zones of Transition

ZONE 1

BREAKDOWN

Dehumanizing Poverty

- Powerlessness of the people
- No access to resources
- Lack of capabilities/opportunities

Marginalization of People and Resources

Degradation of Values and Ecosystems

Social Injustice/Gross Inequities

Gross social disparity

Apathy

Conflict/Violence

EXTINCTION

ZONE 2

BRCEAKTHROUGH

COOPERATIVISM : A Transformative Leading Edge

➤ A Tool of Empowerment

- Develop Fully Human Potentials
- Harnessing Collective Energies
- Access and Control of Resources

PUTTING THE PEOPLE IN THE CENTER OF DEV'T PROCESSES

➤ A Vehicle for PEACE and DEVELOPMENT

- Uprooting the causes of conflict,
i.e. social exclusion and gross inequity

ZONE 3

TRANSFORMATION

SUSTAINABLE FUTURE

➤ Ecologically Sustainable, Socially Equitable Development

- Social Justice
- Social Equity
- Meaningful People's Participation
- Meeting the Millennium Devt Goals attained
- Sustainable Devt' principles institutionalized.

PEACE, STABILITY & SUSTAINABILITY

DEMOCRATIZATION OF WEALTH AND POWER ACCELERATION

BREAKTHROUGH

Strategies

REGULATION

- Strengthen governance and enhance regulatory framework
- Efficient registration of cooperatives

MARKET DEVELOPMENT AND TRADE PROMOTION SERVICES

- Develop globally competitive products from agriculture and fishery cooperatives and establish market linkages and promotion in both domestic and international trade

CAPABILITY BUILDING

- Strengthen the relationship of governments agencies, government owned and controlled corporations, academe, and private institutions by utilizing the cooperative councils mechanism for partnership building and mainstreaming cooperative policies
- Implement capacity building and institutional development for cooperatives particularly the micro and small cooperatives

Holistic Development Approach

EMPOWERING OUR COOPERATIVES

WHERE ARE WE NOW?

- Data Base Management :
Cooperative Profile & Data Analysis

WHERE DO WE WANT TO GO?

- Social Justice
- Equity
- Sustainable Development

HOW DO WE GET THERE?

- Putting the People in the mainstream of development processes

SOCIO ECONOMICS

- Micro-Financing
- Productivity Enhancement
- Marketing
- Entrepreneurship
- Job Generation

Social Justice & Equity

GOOD GOVERNANCE

- Create Conducive Policy Environment
- Participate in Decision-Making
- Integrate cooperativism in Development Process
- Gender and Development
- Peace Initiatives

Peace

Stability

RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

- Access and Control of Ecological Resources
- Agrarian Reform
- Community-based Resource Management
- Protection/Enhancement of Ecological Wealth

Productivity

BASIC UTILITIES/ SERVICES

- Consumer-owned water and Electric cooperatives
- Strengthening Transport Coops
- Broaden Coverage of Coop Insurance
- Coop Schools/Institutes
- Coop Media

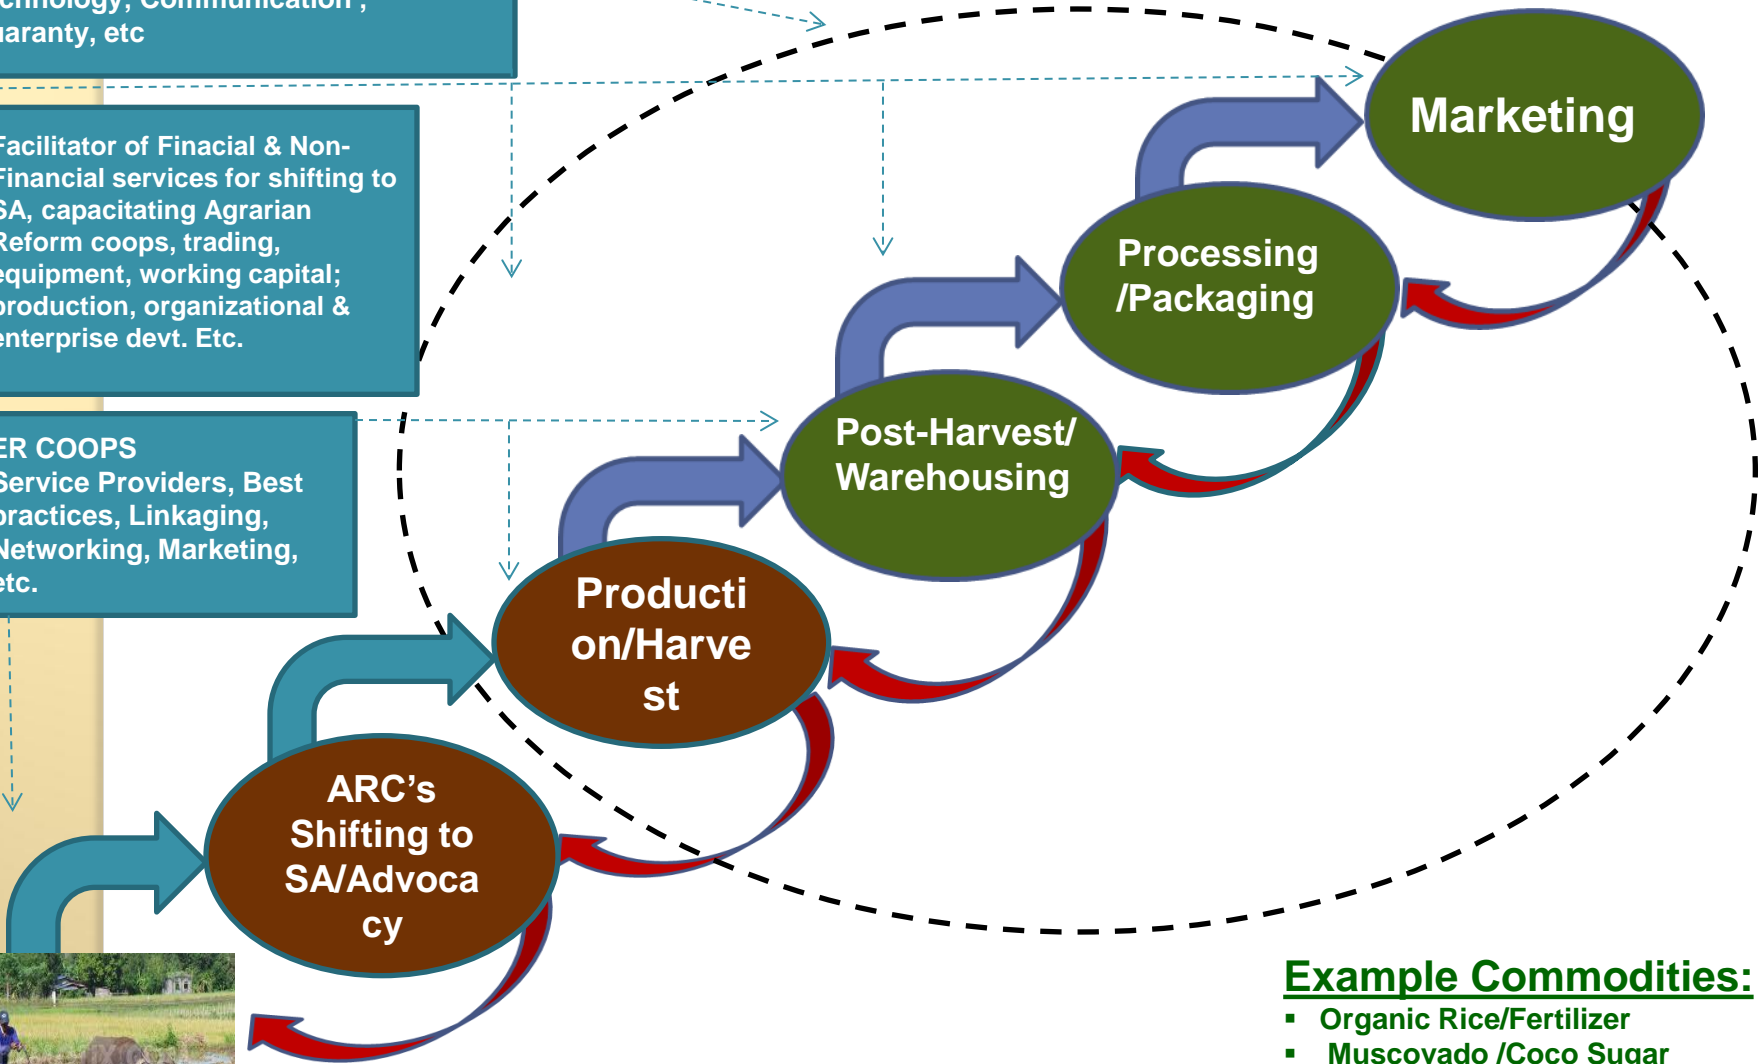

Sustainability

Sample value chain for prod'n/AR coops

OTHERS
 LGUs, Academe, Civil Society Orgs, Donors, Private Sector, Other Financial Institutions
 ➤ Policy Support; Information;
 Technology; Communication ;
 Guaranty, etc

CDA
 ➤ Facilitator of Financial & Non-
 Financial services for shifting to SA, capacitating Agrarian Reform coops, trading,
 equipment, working capital;
 production, organizational & enterprise devt. Etc.

OTHER COOPS
 ➤ Service Providers, Best practices, Linkaging, Networking, Marketing, etc.

Example Commodities:

- Organic Rice/Fertilizer
- Muscovado /Coco Sugar
- Organic Vegetables
- .Other organic crops

WHEEL OF COOPERATIVE DEVELOPMENT

AEC 2015

“Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high;
Where knowledge is free;
Where the world is not broken down
by narrow domestic walls;
In that heaven of freedom;
My Father, let my people awake!”

(Rabindranath Tagore)

Thank you!