4. An inventory of primary, secondary and tertiary cooperatives shall be made, clustered on the basis of their authorized business activities as provided for in their Articles of Cooperation. For multipurpose cooperatives, their main line of business shall be identified based on their submitted AFS and CAPRs;
5. The Authority shall invite qualified cooperatives to attend the organizational meetings. At least five (5) days prior to the conduct of the meetings, the cooperatives shall submit their official representatives. Official representatives must present a board resolution giving them the authority to represent the cooperative.

Multipurpose cooperatives shall identify their official representatives for each business activity.

Newly registered cooperatives may participate in the meeting as observers.

6. Conduct of meetings may be virtual, physical/face to face, or a combination of both;
7. Organizational meetings must follow the agenda set forth in this Guidelines;
8. During an organizational meeting, the election of officers shall be conducted in a plenary. In the election of representatives, however, breakout sessions shall be done.

Representatives shall be elected as follows:

- One (1) representative for each type of cooperatives;
 - One (1) representative per province;
 - One (1) representative per highly urbanized city, and
 - In the case of NCR, one (1) representative for each district.
9. Election of officers shall be conducted following the procedures provided in this Guidelines;
 10. ~~Once organized, the officers elected shall file with the CDA regional office an application for recognition as stated in this Guidelines.~~

Section 2.1. Composition of membership of RCOs.

~~Membership in RCOs shall come from all types and categories of cooperatives.~~

Multipurpose cooperatives may join more than one (1) cluster depending on the authorized business activities they are engaged in.

5. Once organized, the elected officers shall file the application for recognition with the CDA Head Office.

Section 5. ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND VOTING PROCEDURES.

Section 5.1. Nominations.

Candidates for election of officers shall be through nominations during the meeting. Nominations can be virtual, face to face or a combination of both. For succeeding elections, the conduct of elections shall be in accordance with the internal rules to be adopted by NAC, SAOs and RCOs, respectively, as approved by the Authority.

Those nominated may decline the nomination and said nominee(s) shall not be included in the ballot. If a nominee is eligible for the office and does not expressly decline such nomination, he/she shall be considered as a candidate.

For multipurpose cooperatives, the representative can only be nominated as an officer in the cluster where they have their main line of business as determined by the CDA regional office on the basis of the submitted financial statements and/or Cooperative Annual Progress Report.

Section 5.2. Conduct of election.

1. Election may be virtual or through electronic means or face to face or a combination of virtual and face to face.
2. The Authority shall declare the floor open for nomination for each position.
3. Anyone can move to close the nomination and after it is seconded, the election shall proceed. If there is only one nominee, he/she shall be proclaimed as the winning candidate. In case of two or more nominees, casting of votes shall proceed.
4. The Authority shall canvass the votes right after casting. Counting and tallying shall follow thereafter and shall be shown to the members.
5. In case of a tie, the winner shall be determined by drawing lots.
6. If there is no objection to the results, the Authority shall proclaim the winning candidate/s.
7. In case of protest, the same shall be decided by the body during the said meeting.
