1. Guiding and empower its member to be valuable asset of society.

Bee Home not only providing trainings and seminars for our members to be empowered. We also provided programs and essential tools/needs of our member-workers. Giving example is our “Beesekleta Para Sa Miyembro Program” were our member-workers can loan a bike on a very minimal cost to sustain their transport needs going to their respective work/Job Assignment in the midst of Covid Pandemic. By the said programs our member-workers continuously became asset not only by the cooperative, our clients but as the society as well.

3. Supporting and helping the activities of its community.

Bee Home is one of the many cooperatives that extended help to those people much affected by the pandemic. For our Covid 19 outreach program we covered those Tricycle and Pedicab drivers of the three chosen barangays in our beloved city of Malabon. As for Bee Home, one of our best practices to promote cooperativism is by our outreach programs. We are not only helping people in the times of crisis but also make people learn and be more aware about cooperativism.

4. Community Service, Relief Giving (May 2, 2020)
