

Happening today: Tax Forum for Cooperatives in Catanduanes

The Cooperative Development Authority Region V Catanduanes Field Office, with the relentless and unwavering partnership with the Provincial Cooperative Development Council and Cooperative Union of Catanduanes, is currently holding the Tax Forum for Cooperatives today October 11, 2022 from 8:00am-5:00pm at the Queen Maricel Inn, San Isidro Village, Virac Catanduanes.

cooperative leaders and officers particularly those task to comply with the government regulations and mandates as reiterated in RA 9520 also known as The Philippine Cooperative of 2008. Enjoying the tax exemption is one of the privileges of being part of a cooperative and as such it is imperative to be aware and be informed of the latest issuances of the Bureau of Internal Revenue in order to comply with what the agency is requiring.

The day is expected to be very productive and full of learning thus, the forty (40) participants will definitely be bringing with them new acquired knowledge and lots of take away that will be shared to their respective cooperatives. Let's go KooPinas and build a better world!!!

Prepared by:

OPHAR JUNE DY

PCDS Catanduanes